

DRAMA

ADA 10I

Grade 9, Open Level

What is this course about?

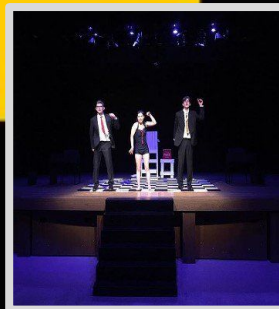

This course provides students with an opportunity to take on roles and to create and enter into imagined worlds. Students will engage in social interaction and collaboration as they create, perform, and analyze drama. Through informal presentations and more formal performances, students will use drama to communicate their aesthetic and personal values.

What are the benefits of taking this course?

- Builds self-confidence and concentration skills.
- Enhances communication and presentation skills.
- Develops collaborative and time management skills.
- Improves motivation, listening skills, and relieves stress.
- Increases creativity and emotional intelligence.

Take this course if you enjoy:

- Being creative in an engaging and stress-free environment.
- Collaborating and observing a variety of entertaining performances.
- Learning new ways to have fun on stage.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Do you need to know how to act to take drama?
Not at all, the course will help you become a confident performer plus you will learn about a variety of other areas such as directing, play writing, sound and lighting design.